

Secure Funding for CE Development – While we pursue a number of avenues to subsidize Continuing Education Credits for our members, occasionally, potential opportunities arise through the budget process that allow the state to meet workforce training/retraining goals related to emerging practice areas with our aspiration to provide our members with access to workforce development. Two such initiatives include: