Scholarships and Fellowships Available

The NASW Foundation is Now Accepting Online Applications for its 2015-2016 Scholarship and Fellowship Awards Through March 4, 2015. Eligible NASW Members are Encouraged to Apply.

The NASW Foundation is offering different scholarships or fellowships to qualified doctoral or master’s degree candidates. Send in your application and be a potential distinguished recipient of The NASW Foundation’s awards. As individuals who consistently serve others, you deserve to be recognized!

Your Professional Association Encourages you to Apply

Below are the descriptions of the different scholarship and fellowship opportunities offered. If you qualify and are a NASW member, please see the link below and apply today.

• The Jane B. Aron Doctoral Fellowship is awarded to a social work doctoral candidate engaged in dissertation research in health care policy and practice. With a generous grant from the New York Community Trust Robert and Ellen Popper Scholarship Fund, the NASW Foundation is pleased to announce SOCIAL WORK HEALS, a collaborative endeavor of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) and the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). This grant will increase the annual funding from one fellowship in the amount of $4,000 to one fellowship in the amount of $15,625 (Applications for the Aron fellowship will be accepted beginning in March 2015).

• The Eileen Blackey Doctoral Fellowship is awarded to a social work doctoral candidate engaged in dissertation research in welfare policy and practice. One fellowship in the amount of $10,000 will be awarded.

• The Consuelo W. Gosnell Memorial MSW Scholarships are awarded to master’s degree candidates in social work interested in working with American Indian/Alaska Native and Hispanic/Latino populations or in public and voluntary nonprofit agency settings. Up to 10 scholarships of up to $4,000 each will be awarded.

• The Verne LaMarr Lyons Memorial MSW Scholarships are awarded to master’s degree candidates in social work who demonstrate an interest in or have experience with health/mental health practice and have a commitment to working in African American communities. With a generous grant from the New York Community Trust Robert and Ellen Popper Scholarship Fund, the NASW Foundation is pleased to announce SOCIAL WORK HEALS, a collaborative endeavor of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) and the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). This grant will increase the annual funding from 4 scholarships in the amount of $4,150 each to 4 scholarships in the amount of $5,500 each.

Click here for more information and a link to the application:
http://www.naswfoundation.org/fellowships.asp NASW-NYS Local Division Scholarships are Available. Eligible Individuals Are Encouraged To Apply.

- Suffolk Division - Eligible students are invited to compete for a $300 scholarship and a one-year NASW membership to be awarded at the 2015 Awards Ceremony:

  o Students must: Be currently enrolled part or full time in a School of Social Work/Social Welfare, have at least a 3.2 GPA, agree to attend the 2015 Annual Awards Ceremony at the Brentwood Country Club April 25, 2015 11:00 am to 3:00 pm.

  o The 2015 NASW NYS Social Work Conference theme is “Restoring Hope: The Power of Social Work- Building Strong Communities, Collaborative Practice, Accountable Leadership – Social Work in Action.” For this submission, and with the theme of the conference in mind, create a response to the question “In your view, what does a strong community look like?” You may want to consider whose voice is heard, who is in leadership and who holds the power.