Meet Our Student Panel!

Lindsay Spurling

Lindsay is a BSW graduate from Keuka College, with an interest in social work research and politics. She is a member of the Political Action Campaign for Candidate Elections (PACE) and former Continuing Education intern at the NASW-NYS Chapter.

Minghuang Wang

Hi, my name is Ming. I graduated from Skidmore College in 2023 with a B.S. in Social Work and International Affairs minor. I am currently an Advanced Standing MSW student at Columbia School of Social Work with a specialization in Leadership, Management, and Entrepreneurship for Social Justice. My interests are advocating anti-racist and anti-oppressive practices to work with underserved Asian American, immigrant, and LGBTQ+ communities.

Julene Ventura

Hello, my name is Julene Ventura! I recently graduated from Siena College with my BSW. I am now an Advanced Standing MSW student at the University of Albany. I am currently gaining Macro level experience at my internship, Youth Research Inc (YRI). I have a deep interest in program development and management for BIPOC and marginalized communities."

Fatoumata Camara

Fatoumata earned a dual Masters degree in social work and public health from Stony Brook University in May 2023. While completing her degrees, Fatoumata worked as a Care Manager for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities, and she completed her field placement and practicum at the National Association of cial Workers, New York State Chapter as a Policy and Advocacy Intern.

Fatoumata also works as a Community Outreach Director for Donate to Guinea, an NGO focused on providing support and access to education and nutrition to children, youth, and adults living in poverty throughout communities in her home country, the capital region of Guinea.

Fatoumata's interests include equity in education, children's mental health, social justice, and political social work.

Outside of her career, Fatoumata enjoys exploring new places, spending time with family and cooking.
